Safe Flight Instrument Corporation Donates $50,000 to Corporate Angel Network

Also flies cancer patients on company business trips.

White Plains NY—October 1, 2008—Aviation pioneer, Safe Flight Instrument Corporation, has donated $50,000 to Corporate Angel Network (CAN), the public charity that coordinates free flights to treatment for cancer patients using empty seats in business aircraft.

“Safe Flight is happy to be able to support cancer patients in their efforts to access the best available treatment” said Randall Greene, Safe Flight’s President and CEO.

Safe Flight has supported CAN since it’s founding in 1981 and flew the first CAN flight bringing a 16 year old boy home to Detroit after treatment in New York City.

About Safe Flight Instrument Corporation

Safe Flight Instrument Corporation, a leader in aviation safety and flight performance systems, was founded in 1946. Headquartered in White Plains, New York, the company pioneered the development of Stall Warning, Automatic Throttles, Wind Shear Warning, and many other innovations in aircraft instrumentation and control systems for fixed- and rotary-winged aircraft. Safe Flight products are installed on over two-thirds of the world's aircraft - in the general aviation, commercial, and military sectors.

About Corporate Angel Network

*Corporate Angel Network is a public charity that arranges free flights for cancer patients to treatment using empty seats on business aircraft. Since its founding 26 years ago, CAN has grown to include over 500 participating corporations, five paid staff, and a team of 50 part-time volunteers who work with patients, physicians, corporate flight departments, and leading treatment centers to coordinate medical travel needs of cancer patients with the scheduled flight activity of participating corporations. To date, CAN has arranged nearly 30,000 flights and currently provides nearly 3,000 patient flights annually. CAN has received numerous awards in recognition of its service to cancer patients, including The Volunteer Action Award, the highest volunteer award from the President of the United States.
